

August 27, 1940.

Mr. John Davis,
336 Broadway,
Schenectady, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Davis:

I am very sorry we have been unable to get together to date, but it is a little difficult trying to transact business through the mail and at such a distance.

I received your wires, but was a little surprised at your request for such large amounts of money so late in the season. After all the baseball season is almost over. Now I am just as anxious to secure your services as I ever was, and will try and see if I can arrange to get you located here any time soon. Would you like to try and arrange to come here for this week-end, that is get here by Thursday of this week and stay over until Monday of next. I will give you thirty dollars($30.00) for this week-end, if you want to come for this, I will send you your transportation at once. Wire me immediately.

Very truly yours,

AM:CCJ